

Welcome to Milford Connecticut, "A Small City with a Big Heart!" Strolling through downtown you get that small town feeling coupled with the charm and the sense of history of an English settlement dating from 1639. Seventeen miles of Long Island Sound coastline funnel into Milford's harbor that winds its way to meet the Wepawaug River in the heart of town. The sixth oldest town in Connecticut, 50,000+ residents are proud to boast of a meticulously maintained "town green", the second longest in New England.

A diversified economy supports manufacturing, retail, a service industry, and corporate offices featuring Subway's corporate headquarters and Bic Consumer Products Manufacturing.

A feeling of "Milford Pride", along with ample cultural, recreational, educational and employment opportunities make the city more than just a great place to visit. Festivals and activities abound in Milford from the largest one-day event, the Annual Milford Oyster Festival, to outdoor movie nights and concerts, arts and crafts shows, the Rotary Lobster Bake, the Duck Race, Irish Heritage Day, Oktoberfest, Woodmont Day, and the Walnut Beach festival.

Water recreation abounds with access from boat launches, the Milford Lisman Landing Marina, multiple city beaches, and Silver Sands State Park. The Connecticut Audubon Coastal Center at Milford Point offers views of the estuary and Long Island Sound and their inhabitants and an educational program to explain all.

The new architecturally awarded addition to Milford Hospital provides for health care needs as it has for the last 80 years. Milford is in southwestern New Haven County, and easily accessible from Routes 1 and 15, and I-95. Sikorsky Memorial Airport is a short 10-minute ride; both Westchester County Airport, and Bradley International Airport are approximately an hour away and Tweed New Haven is less than a half hour. Metro North provides train service from the Milford station.
