

Founded in 1639, Stratford is a quiet, charming seaside town, rich in history and abundant natural beauty. Situated on Long Island Sound, bounded to the east by the Housatonic River, Stratford is the easternmost town in Fairfield County. The town is easily accessible to I-95 and the Merritt Parkway, offering convenient travel in all directions. There is a local Metro North train station providing service to Grand Central Station in New York. Sikorsky Memorial Airport intown offers commuter flights; Tweed-New Haven Regional and Westchester County Airports are less than an hour away.

Well-known for its production of machine products, chemicals, and hardware, Stratford became the birthplace of the American helicopter industry when in 1939, a Russian immigrant, Igor Sikorsky, successfully flew the first helicopter at his Stratford-based aircraft plant. Sikorsky Aircraft, the world's leading helicopter manufacturer, still designs and pro-duces state-of-the art helicopters for both military and commercial applications at its manufacturing facility on Stratford's north side.

Stratford's school system offers 7 elementary schools, 2 elementary magnet schools, 2 middle schools, and 2 high schools. The city-owned Short Beach Park, adjacent to the beach community of Lordship, abounds with ball fields, a play-ground, nine-hole golf course, miniature golf, tennis, and more. The sand pit at Long Beach offers some of the best beach walking in Fairfield County.

Be sure to browse through the Stratford Antique Center, a 16,000 sq. ft. warehouse filled with great finds from more than 200 dealers.

Stratford is a wonderful place to live with many unique real estate opportunities to offer, including multi-family homes, townhomes, and single-family homes. Highly-regarded Oronoque Village is an award-winning over-55 community of spacious condo homes on 300 scenic acres with its own Arnold Palmer managed golf course.
